Description

Metal stamping is a manufacturing process that converts flat metal sheets into specific shapes. This complex process incorporates various metal forming techniques including blanking, punching, bending, and piercing.

Advantages

Stamping is ideal for mass production of complex parts, offering:

- Complex form capabilities including intricate contours
- High volume production (thousands to millions of parts annually)
- Fine blanking processes for forming thick metal sheets
- Low cost-per-piece pricing

Applications

- Automotive Stampings
- Building Products
- Solar BOS (Balance of System) Components
- LED Lighting
- Electric Vehicle (EV) Components

Company Profile

C&A Industrial Component Ltd. is a China-based manufacturer specializing in custom metal components, hardware, fittings, valves, PVC products, and more. We collaborate with over 20 manufacturing facilities throughout China, utilizing processes including pressure die casting, machining, and stamping. Most facilities maintain ISO9001 and TS16949 certifications. Our manufacturing operations are located in Zhejiang and Jiangsu areas, with a dedicated USA sales office serving North American customers.
